James E. "Jim" King, Jr., President

Florida Senate - 2003

CS for SM 1360

1 Senate Memorial

2 A memorial to the Congress of the United 3 States, urging Congress to grant without 4 further delay Puerto Rico's pending petition
5 for a federally sanctioned plebiscite to 6 establish and define the political status and 7 electoral rights of United States citizens of 8 Puerto Rico.

9
10 WHEREAS, on December 10, 1898, the Treaty of Paris was 11 signed by the United States, and on February 6, 1899, was 12 ratified by the United States, formally concluding the 13 Spanish-American War and establishing Puerto Rico as a 14 territory of the United States, and

15 WHEREAS, on March 2, 1917, President Woodrow Wilson
16 signed the Puerto Rican Federal Relations Act, otherwise known 17 as the Jones Act, extending United States citizenship to 18 citizens of Puerto Rico, but not authorizing them to qualify 19 as candidates for office in the United States Senate or in the 20 United States House of Representatives, or for the office of 21 President of the United States, and not authorizing them to 22 vote for any such candidate, and

23 WHEREAS, since 1917, 200,000 people who are citizens of 24 Puerto Rico have served valiantly as members of the United 25 States Armed Services in every war and conflict in which the 26 United States has been engaged in defense of democratic 27 principles and the freedom of individuals to exercise their 28 fundamental rights of self-determination, and

29 WHEREAS, four heroic Puerto Ricans, Hector
30 Santiago-Colon, Euripides Rubio, Carlos James Lozada, and Luis 31 Fernando Garcia, have been awarded the Congressional Medal of

1 Honor for their valor in defending American ideals and 2 freedoms, and

3 WHEREAS, the 3.8 million citizens of Puerto Rico have 4 made many invaluable social, economic, and public service
5 contributions to preserve, protect, and advance American 6 ideals and freedoms, and

7 WHEREAS, a significant number of the citizens of the 8 State of Florida originate from Puerto Rico and other Latin 9 American countries, and many such citizens serve as our 10 state's business, education, cultural, and public service 11 leaders, and

12 WHEREAS, Florida's great history, including its 13 ascension to statehood, is closely intertwined with a heritage
14 derived from the many invaluable contributions made by Puerto 15 Ricans and others of Latin American descent, and

16 WHEREAS, in 1997, the Legislature of Puerto Rico
17 submitted a formal petition to the Congress of the United 18 States asking that Congress respond to the many democratic 19 aspirations of citizens of Puerto Rico by authorizing a 20 federally sanctioned plebiscite to be held no later than 1998, 21 but Congress has not yet acted on the petition, and

22 WHEREAS, it is long overdue that citizens of Puerto 23 Rico be endowed with the political and electoral rights of 24 full representative government that are exercised by other 25 United States citizens, and

26 WHEREAS, the Florida Legislature urges all citizens of 27 Florida and of all the other states and territories of the 28 United States to support enactment of a federal law leading to 29 full self-government for Puerto Rico, NOW, THEREFORE,

30
31 Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

1           That the Congress of the United States is urged to act
2 without further delay on Puerto Rico's pending petition by 3 promptly enacting legislation establishing and defining the 4 political status and electoral rights of citizens of Puerto
5 Rico, and authorizing a plebiscite to provide an opportunity
6 for such citizens to make an informed decision on the future
7 political status of Puerto Rico.

8           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this memorial be 9 presented to the President of the United States, to the 10 President of the United States Senate, to the Speaker of the 11 United States House of Representatives, to each member of the 12 Florida delegation to the United States Congress, and to the 13 Governor of Puerto Rico.
